City.

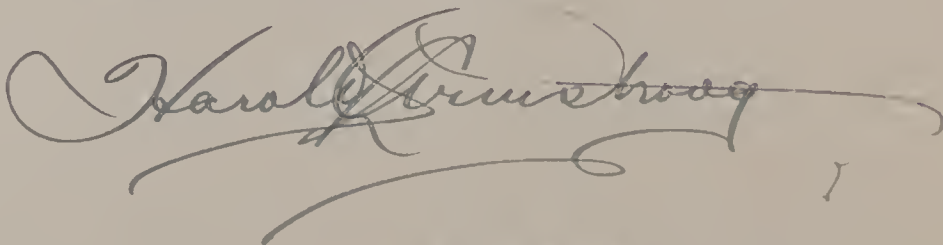

Dear Sir;-

The Board of Directors of the Broadview Boys' Fall Fair extend to you a cordial invitation to speak at the Director's Luncheon on Thursday Evening September 17th, at 6.30 P.M.

The Board of Directors this year is composed of nearly all High School Students who are planning to go through College. The rest of the Board is composed of very vigorous young business fellows of the highest type.

Trusting you will accept our invitation and that you will let us know by return mail, I am,

Yours respectfully,

Managing Director.

Mr. B. L. Armstrong,

Marasins Director, Boys' Fall Fair,

275 Broadview Avenue, Toronto.

Dear Mr. Armstrong:

I have this morning received your letter asking me to speak on Thursday evening at the Director's Luncheon. I should gladly do so but I am making preparations for the opening of the session and I am afraid that I cannot spare the evening.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
